

WHAT IS VIOLENCE?

VIOLENCE IS...

The use of physical force or another type of power:

- to harm someone or a group of persons, or other living beings;
- to damage property.

This can result in injury, death, deprivation or other harm.

THE CAUSING OF PAIN OR HARM IS USUALLY INTENTIONALLY BUT SOMETIMES BECAUSE OF LOSS OF MENTAL CONTROL.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Acts or threats of harm that happen in the home.

Short film in

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=U6OmeEBI7QY>

TYPES AND EXAMPLES OF VIOLENCE

PHYSICAL: jerks, punches, kicks, etc.

SEXUAL: assault and sexual abuse.

PSYCHOLOGICAL: threats, intimidation, harassment, insults, humiliation, etc.

DEPRIVATION: failure to provide food, education, health care, clothing; child neglect, etc.

WHO IS VIOLENT AGAINST WHOM

Self-directed violence: violence against oneself.

Interpersonal violence: violence between persons.

Collective violence: violence committed by larger groups of persons.

SAY NO TO VIOLENCE
START TO CHANGE THE WORLD

<https://www.who.int/violenceprevention/en/>